Treasury Tour

Valuable revelation
of priceless treasures

Highlight Tour

Of all Austrian monasteries and convents, Klosterneuburg Monastery offers the most comprehensive range of various tours. To help you make up your mind, we recommend the two-hour Highlight Tour (Sacred, Treasury and Wine Cellar) which gives you a compact insight into medieval and baroque artistic treasures as well as the valuables in the monastery's treasury.

Highlights

- The baroque sala terrena
- Medieval cloister
- The seven-armed candelabra donated by Agnes
- The Verdun altar
- Austrian archducal coronet
- Veil monstrance
- Leopoldian vestments
- Wine tasting

Information

Available between January and December, duration: approx. 2 hours.

Note that the restaurants and cafes offer package deals.

Sacred Tour

With its 51 gilded enamel panels, the Verdun altar has been impressing visitors for centuries. Nikolaus von Verdun's masterpiece, dating from 1181, unparalleled anywhere on earth, is without doubt the highlight of any Sacred Tour. Equally interesting are the cloister, the medieval exhibition room and the seven-armed candelabra donated by Agnes. The abbey church impresses with its monumental baroque organ, the ceiling frescoes and the imperial oratorio.

Highlights

- The Verdun altar
- The seven-armed candelabra donated by Agnes
- Cloister
- Medieval exhibition room with masterpieces dating from the 14th and 15th centuries
- Abbey church
- Imperial oratorio
- Monumental baroque organ
- Ceiling frescoes

Information

Available between January and December, duration: approx. 1 hour.

We recommend booking a wine-tasting session.

Note that the restaurants and cafes offer package deals.

Treasury Tour

The precious objects in the treasury of Klosterneuburg Monastery remained a secret for centuries, with only a hand-picked group of people being allowed access to them. Since May 2011, however, it has been possible to view the precious objects as part of the Treasury Tour. The archducal coronet – the state crown of Austria – is an absolute highlight for visitors.

Highlights

- Austrian archducal coronet
- Veil monstrance
- Major works of medieval goldsmithery
- Textiles from nine centuries
- Works of art made from ivory

Information

Available between January and December, duration: approx. 1 hour.

We recommend booking a wine-tasting session.

Note that the restaurants and cafes offer package deals.

Imperial Tour

Discover the traces of a gigantic project: Klosterneuburg Monastery as a symbol of the merging of worldly and spiritual power. The imperial apartments with the sala terrena and the marble hall as a baroque centre-piece of the emperor. From the Napoleon chamber and the public audience chamber, you proceed into the increasingly private rooms of the ruler.

Highlights

- Sala terrena
- Marble hall
- Ceiling fresco by Daniel Gran
- Imperial apartments
- Paintings by old masters

Information

Available between January and December, duration: approx. 1 hour.

We recommend booking a wine-tasting session.

Note that the restaurants and cafes offer package deals.

Wine Cellar Tour

The Wine Cellar Tour is an atmospheric, informative tour of the baroque cellar complex supported by brick walls one metre thick which, over three storeys, goes 36 metres underground. There, the connection between centuries-old viticulture tradition and state-of-the-art winery technology is conveyed in a unique fashion. The guided tour explains the history of wine production in Klosterneuburg, which goes back almost 900 years and, to round off the tour, guests are invited to taste the monastery's home-grown, top-quality wines.

Highlights

- Barrique cellar
- Fermenting cellar
- Roman cellar
- Press house
- Wine tasting
- Wine shop
- Film on wine for groups

Information

Available between January and December, duration: approx. 1 hour.

We recommend booking a wine-tasting session.

Note that the restaurants and cafes offer package deals.

Garden Tour

The convent garden of Klosterneuburg Monastery has been used by the Augustinian canons as a place of meditation for centuries. The Garden Tour affords visitors a closer look at the lovely park, designed in accordance with the classic English model, and the neoclassicist orangery constructed by Joseph Kornhäusel.

Highlights

- Sala terrena (unfinished garden hall)
- Cloister garden
- Pond garden
- Orangery
- Convent garden

Information

Available between May and October, duration: approx. 1 hour.

We recommend booking a wine-tasting session.

Note that the restaurants and cafes offer package deals.
